

The Guild of Book Workers' 100th Anniversary Catalog Order Form

The 100th Anniversary Exhibition opens September 19 at the Grolier Club in New York featuring a retrospective look at the past 100 years and a juried traveling exhibition of contemporary work. While the retrospective will not travel, the full-color catalog features all 57 works in the retrospective and 62 works in the juried exhibition along with descriptive and biographical information for each artist. A limited amount of unbound copies (at a slightly discounted price) are also available. Please note that you would like an unbound copy in the "Special Instructions" field below.
